

EMMAUS AT DISNEYLAND!

Typically, Emmaus doesn't do amusement park trips because they really don't accomplish much. What usually happens is that when we arrive at the park, students take off in their own little friendship groups and they hang out all day and very little additional relationship building takes place. This means there's not much of a reason for us to go as a student ministry.

So, for our trip to Disneyland, the students that are going will need to do Disneyland the "Emmaus Way." Which means we are going to be intentional about building relationships during our day at Disneyland. Everyone signing up for this event needs to be prepared to not only have an awesome day at Disneyland, but also to hang out with new folks and do some fun relationship building stuff. The relationship building stuff is an important part of our trip to Disneyland, so everyone going needs to agree to fully participate. Don't worry, we'll still have an awesome time at Disneyland, we'll just be doing it together.

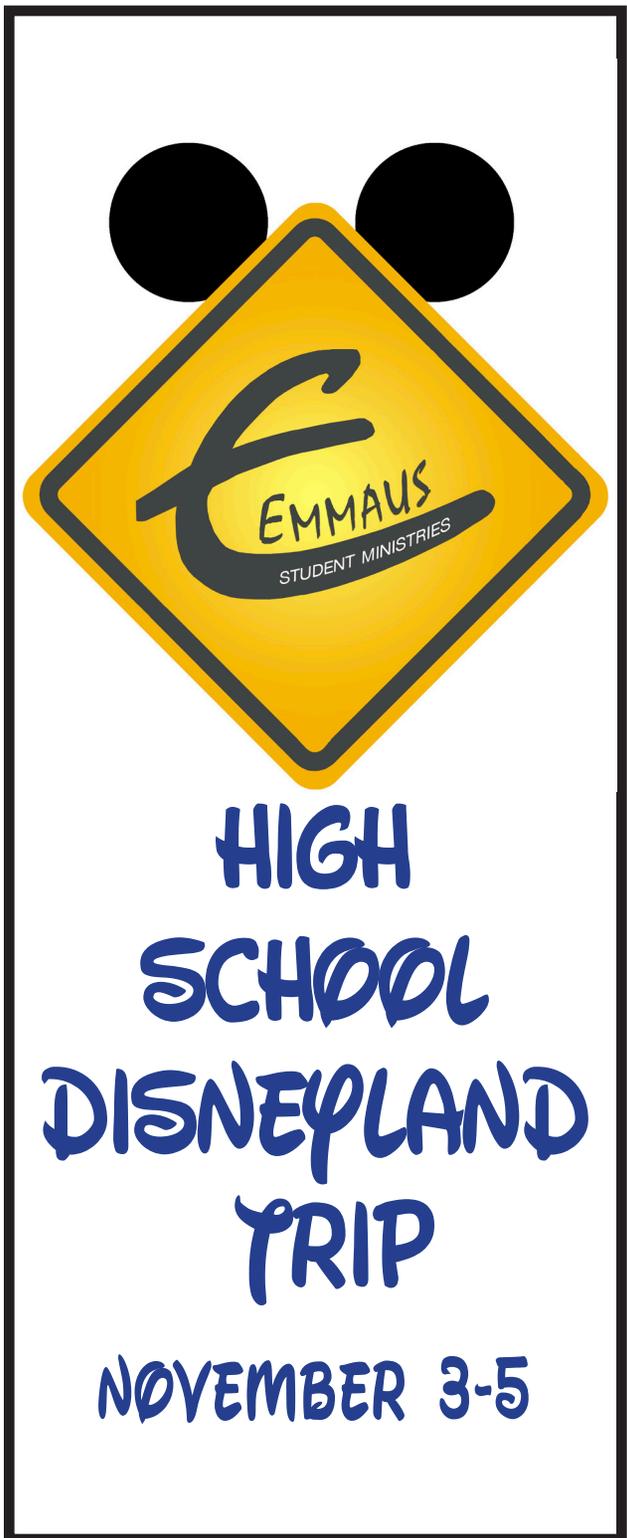

Also, since this is a relationship building retreat and space will be limited, this is not an outreach event where everyone brings friends. For this trip, it is for folks who are regular attenders at Emmaus on Sundays and/or Wednesdays.

THE PLAN

We are chartering a bus to drive us down and bring us back. We will meet at the church parking lot on Friday, November 3rd at 1 p.m. Eat lunch before ya come or bring some food with you. We will get dinner on the road.

The bus will drive us down to Community Covenant Church in Santa Barbara where we will spend the night sleeping on the floor. On the morning of November 3rd, we will get up and drive the rest of the way to Disneyland. We'll spend the day in the parks.

We'll get back on the bus when the parks close (around midnight) and come home. We plan to get back to the church in the morning on November 5th.
